

'MOBILE' v. 'IMMOBILE ENVIRONMENT

Let us take two examples of societies in today's world:

Communist and Capitalist.

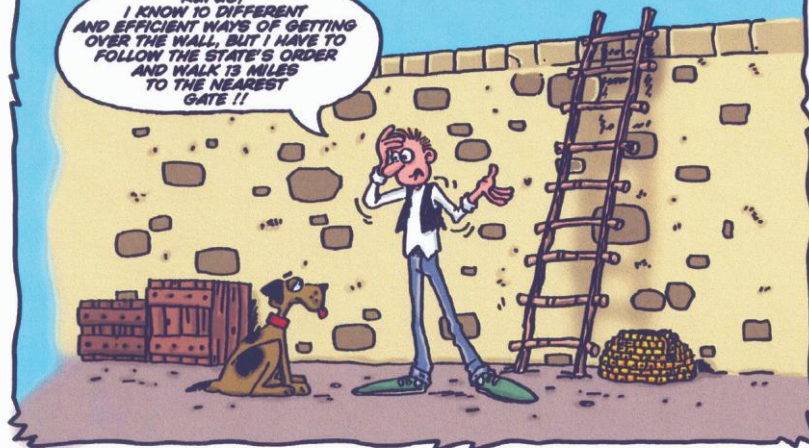

Communism was thought up by a few people and imposed upon millions within a couple of years. The philosophy of communism implies that all men are equal which is very much against the laws of nature. The supply of life's necessities is controlled from a central body rather than allowing the natural forces of demand and supply to operate. This is the worst feature of such a society because at a stroke it takes away from every individual the 'opportunity to profit'. In other words, it disallows man his basic instinct to make rational choices in order to improve himself. It thus shuts down man's dominant motivating force. It takes away his hopes and dreams and confines him to a life of drudgery.

In a communist society, man can still exercise his 'simple choice' (that is, the desire to go up) but he cannot achieve it because he is not allowed to use (rational choice) the means to get there.

THE WORST ASPECT OF COMMUNISM.

IT TAKES AWAY THE 'OPPORTUNITY... TO PROFIT'. IT DISALLOWS MAN HIS BASIC INSTINCT ~ TO MAKE RATIONAL CHOICES TO IMPROVE HIMSELF.

IMMOBILE SOCIETY

LOW SCORE ON THE SCALE OF LIFE'S TRUE VALUE !

(A) BECAUSE OF 'NO MOBILITY'—I.E. NO HOPES OF RISING AND NO FEARS OF FALLING—YOU SCORE ONLY 1 OR 2 OUT OF 10 ON THE SCALE OF LIFE'S TRUE VALUE ! THIS IS THE MOST IMPORTANT SCALE !

YOUR CAGE IS CHAINED TO ONE LEVEL
FOR LIFE !

(B) BECAUSE YOU ARE NOT ALLOWED TO USE YOUR OWN INITIATIVE (MAKE RATIONAL CHOICES FOR SELF-IMPROVEMENT), YOUR MATERIAL STANDARD IS ALSO QUITE LOW DOWN ON THE SCALE OF TEN !
